

AWFUL HORROR OUT IN MONTANA

Over Twenty Wild Freight Cars Dash Into Passenger Train.

FIRE IN THE WRECK

Ass't. Supt. Downs, His Son and Secretary, and About 30 Laborers Killed.

DETAILS HARD TO GET

Kalispel, Mont., August 31.—Twenty-eight freight cars going down the mountain at lightning speed crashed into a Great Northern passenger train near Niack on Friday morning, demolishing the private car of Assistant General Superintendent Downs and a day coach full of laborers.

The two wrecked cars caught on fire and burned up. Downs and his son were instantly killed and their cook.

Many laborers were killed and burned. The sleeper caught fire but it is reported that all of the passengers escaped.

Brought in 28 Dead

The train bearing the dead and injured arrived here this morning, with twenty-eight killed and thirteen wounded.

Of the twenty-five laborers killed, the corpses of twenty were consumed in the flames that destroyed Downs' car and the laborers' coach.

The passenger train had just reached the level of the main line when twenty-eight freight cars broke loose from the train on the mountain side and a few seconds later the cars crashed into the rear of the passenger train with terrific force.

The special car and the workmen's coach were crushed like egg shells.

The debris immediately took fire and the unfortunates caught under the heavy timbers were burned to death.

This was the fate met by Downs, his son and the cook. The burning cars destroyed the telegraph wire and it was many hours before relief could be sent for.

As soon as the news of the disaster reached Kalispel a score of physicians and nurses and a wrecking train were sent to the scene.

Fire Adds to Horror

St. Paul, Minn., August 31.—Disconnected and round about reports come filtering in this morning of an awful wreck on the Great Northern road near Kalispel, Montana.

Twenty-eight freight cars became detached from a train ascending a grade and rushed back into a passenger train.

The business car of Assistant Supt. Downs was smashed to splinters and he and his son and secretary were instantly killed.

A day coach containing fifty laborers was also smashed and it is believed that two-thirds of the men were killed.

To add to the horror the wreck caught fire and the wounded men imprisoned among the debris were burned to death.

The rest of the passengers in two coaches were badly shaken up and some badly injured, but no fatalities. Particulars are hard to get.

FEAR FOR SENATOR FAIRBANKS

Takes to Bed Because of Injuries Received at Minneapolis

Indianapolis, Ind., August 31.—Senator Fairbanks returned to his home in this city from Minneapolis last night, and was forced to take to his bed at once on account of the painfulness of the injuries which he received a week ago by being thrown from a carriage. Today he was considerably worse than when he arrived, and much uneasiness is felt by his family and friends. His left leg and arm and his right hand are in bandages and at times he suffers excruciating pain.

OYSTER SEASON AGAIN AT HAND; THE BIVALVES GIVE GOOD PROMISE

Early Monday Morning the Signal Flag to Begin Operations Will Be Raised on Chesapeake Bay.

Philadelphia, Pa., August 31.—The fleets of oyster boats and hundreds of fishermen will begin work on the beds of oysters on the eastern and western shores of the Delaware. This will continue daily until sunset when the flag will drop. Any planter caught dredging before or after the flag signals will have his cargo confiscated and lose his license forever.

As a multiplier the oyster is a wonder. One of them is capable of producing 1,000,000 spawn on the rocks of Chesapeake bay, where the greater number of oysters are raised for transplanting in the Delaware waters, where they fatten as nowhere else.

The Maurice river coves, from the eastern shores of the Delaware bay, and the western shores of New Jersey, are the best known and most substantial oysters produced.

According to the present indications the prices will be about the same as last year. They averaged from $7.50 to $8.50 per 1,000 for primes, or $3 to $4.50 for cullens.

GUARD OF HONOR FOR MACARTHUR

Two Battalions of the First Regiment National Guard Will Act as His Guard of Honor.

Milwaukee, Wis., August 31.—Two battalions of the First regiment of the national guard and a troop and battery will form the escort to General MacArthur when he comes home on September 11. General Charles King, who is to be the grand marshal of the day, was in Madison yesterday consulting with Adjutant General Boardman in regard to the affair, and it was decided to order to Milwaukee the Second and Third battalions of the Third regiment, all to be under the command of Colonel Falk. These two battalions are formed of the Milwaukee companies, A, E, F and K companies making Major Daly's Third battalion, and company D of Milwaukee with companies B of Fort Atkinson, G. of Madison and M. of Oconomowoc, making the Second battalion.

NEGRO MURDERER ELUDES A POSSE

'Bossie' Francis is Believed to Have Escaped into Kansas—Missouri Mob is Baffled.

Kansas City, Aug. 31.—'Bossie' Francis, the negro who assaulted and murdered Miss Mary Henderson near Columbus, Mo., Thursday afternoon, has managed to elude the posesses of men, who with bloodhounds have been searching every nook and cranny in Johnson and Lafayette counties. The belief is growing that Francis has escaped into Kansas and interest in the chase is dying out. Relatives and friends of the murdered woman, however, will not abandon the pursuit, and say they will eventually get the negro.

A council of Francis' pursuers has already decided that his punishment shall be meted at the stake. W. C. Hyatt, Miss Henderson's brother-in-law, approves of this method of dealing with the negro.

"I want him brought here to the scene of his crime," said Mr. Hyatt, at Columbus, this morning, where he can make a confession. I want to recall to him how many years we cared for him, and ask him why he killed her. Then, when he has answered that, I want to see him burned."

"Will you apply the match," was asked.

"I will do something," he replied with energy.

Governor Dockery today offered a reward of $300 for the capture of the murderer, and the Johnson county officials offered a reward of $100.

TURKEY PLANS ON RETALIATING MOVE

Gives Notice That a Tax Will Be Levied on French Religious Orders—A Settlement Likely.

Paris, August 31.—The Sultan notified M. Constans, the French Ambassador to Turkey, before the latter's departure from Constantinople that he intended to tax the French religious orders in his domains. The sultan added that it would come with bad grace on the part of France to wish to prevent such action, in view of the law of associations.

The Franco-Turkish situation remains unchanged. It is understood that the French government will take no active measures to coerce the sultan until after the czar's visit to France, in order that nothing may occur to mar the festivities attending that event.

M. Constans told a friend today that the latest news in regard to the Turkish difficulty satisfied him that a settlement would be reached within eight days. For that reason he will postpone a trip that he had in view.

Chicago, August 31.—It is rumored that W. J. Bryan in a speech which is to be delivered here on September 14, will formally launch the Carter Harrison presidential boom.

LAST OF INDIAN MISSIONARIES; DEATH OF REV. FAYETTE DURLIN

Died at Madison This Morning Aged Seventy-Seven—Came to La Crosse in 1856 and Was Afterwards at Ripon, Janesville and Racine.

Madison, Wis., August 31.—(Special)—Rev. Dr. Durlin, rector of Grace Episcopal church, and one of the last of the Indian missionaries, died at his home here at 11 a. m. today, aged 77 years. His first work in Wisconsin was at La Crosse in 1856 and was afterwards at Ripon, Janesville and Racine college, coming in 1883 to Madison where he has been rector ever since.

Dr. Durlin has been in Wisconsin for more than fifty years, having come out to the rough frontier at the call of the great missionary, Bp. Kemper. He was of very great assistance to Bishop Kemper in opening up new work for the church. He often spoke of himself in his humble fashion as Bishop Kemper's plough. He certainly did open up many missions and prepare the soil for sowing. He has been rector of several parishes, among them Trinity church of this city. During his rectorate he founded and maintained successfully a parish school which many will still remember. He also organized the first vesting choir in Janesville. After leaving Trinity church he was for several years rector of St. Peter's church of Ripon.

Green Lake was one of his favorite resorts for leisure hours, and thither he had gone with hopes of recuperation this summer when the distress which ended his life first became apparent. While at the lake his family physician had to be sent for and an examination led to the discovery that the trouble was cancer of the liver. Mrs. Durlin and their daughter Maud, at once brought him to Madison and he has been steadily declining from the time of his return from the lake about three weeks ago. Dr. Durlin's most important field of work has been at Grace church, Madison where he has been rector for more than seventeen years. He possessed a knowledge of the life and work of the church of fifty years ago that would be most useful and interesting, but it is feared that he has not left us the means of sharing his and Bishop Kemper's rich experiences in the way of obstacles and victories in the mission fields. Dr. Durlin was a strong man and his fidelity to his church, his pointed and sometimes tart utterances were as simple and straight forward as his daily life.

GOVERNOR SHAW IS A CANDIDATE

His Plans to Make a Run for the Republican Nomination for the Presidency Announced.

Chicago, August 31.—Senator Johnathan P. Dolliver of Iowa announces the candidacy of Governor Leslie M. Shaw for the republican presidential nomination in 1904. The announcement explains the repeated refusal of Governor Shaw to allow his name to be presented for renomination to the governorship of Iowa. It will be remembered that at the end of Governor McKinley's second term in Ohio, a compact of which no secret was made, was reached between Senator Sherman, former Gov. Foraker and Governor McKinley himself. By the terms of that agreement Bushnell was named for governor, Foraker for senator, and the party pledged to present McKinley's name to the national convention.

Probably a like deal all around has been concluded in Iowa. The effects of such an understanding are becoming apparent. A. B. Cummins has been nominated for governor, Leslie Shaw standing aside in the former's favor. Dolliver is assured of reelection this winter in the United States senate; probably W. B. Allison has an equal assurance, and the force of the whole state will be brought behind Shaw when he is named as the Hawkeye candidate in 1904.

St. Paul, Minn., August 31.—The highest price for hogs for the last seven years at the Union stock yards South St. Paul, was passed today when hogs sold at $6.25 per 100 pounds. Sioux City, Ia., August 31.—The highest price paid for hogs during the past seven years was recorded in the Sioux City market today, reaching 6.25. The average price for the day was $6.01.

ISTHMIAN NEWS IS VERY PEACEFUL

Reassuring Report Is Received from Commander Sargent After Visit to Colon and Panama.

Washington, August 31.—American interests are not endangered on the isthmus of Panama, nor is there any immediate danger of traffic on the Panama railway.

These are the conclusions drawn by the officials of the state and navy departments today from a dispatch sent from Colon by Commander Nathan Sargent, commanding the gunboat Machias.

He today sent this dispatch to the navy department:

"I have visited Panama and Colon. There is no appearance of an organized insurgent force in the vicinity of the railway. Free and uninterrupted transit obtains, with every prospect of continuance. Rumor is unfounded that United States property is in need of protection. All quiet here. More reassuring than when we started."

DESIRE TO DROP THE SILVER ISSUE

Wisconsin Democrats Give Evidence That They Have No Further Use for Wm. J. Bryan's Theory.

Milwaukee, Wis., August 31.—It begins to look as though Wisconsin Democrats were getting ready to toss the silver idol, which they have followed so blindly since 1896, into the ditch, look for some way out of the wilderness, and get back to their old home as soon as possible. Now comes State Chairman Warden with a statement which will cause cold chills to race up and down the spines of the dyed in the wool silverites. In an editorial in his paper, Mr. Warden denounces the action of the Iowa democrats in adopting a free silver platform. He says: "The fast growing sentiment in the party is opposed to further contention on the financial issue at present and the action of the Iowa democrats was a step backward and in unfortunate opposition to a reunited party."

This utterance is the more significant because Mr. Warden had always been counted as one of the most earnest worshippers at the Bryan shrine.

QUEER FRANK OF LIGHTNING

Tears the Stockings Off Mrs. Parker of South Lyon, Mich.

South Lyon, Mich., August 31.—Lightning played a peculiar prank at George Parker's residence today. After doing considerable damage to the house it stripped the stockings entirely off Mrs. Parker and burned and tore the flesh quite severely from the knees down.

SHIP FORTY CARS OF NEW POTATOES

Stockton, Cal., Dealers Send Trainload of the Tubers to the Middle and Southern States.

Stockton, Cal., August 31.—A special train of about forty cars of potatoes will leave here today for the Middle and Southern states. The potatoes are raised on the river islands west of this city and towed here on barges. Hundreds of carloads of potatoes, onions, and cabbage will be sent to the Middle States from Stockton this year. Local dealers are paying from $1.50 to $1.60 a hundred pounds for potatoes on the river bank. Today's shipment is the largest single consignment of potatoes ever sent out of the state.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES

Berlin, August 31.—Prince Chum and suite say they will suicide if the Kaiser insists upon the humiliating conditions in connection with the apology for the murder of Von Kettler.

Washington, August 31.—Ex-Secretary of War Alger has decided not to attack General Miles in his forthcoming history of the Spanish war. It is said that friends advised him to make the book one of defense of his own actions.

IMMENSE BET ON THE DEFENDER;
WAGER BREAKS SPORTING RECORD

Pittsburg Millionaire Syndicate Puts Up $250,000 to $150,000 That Defender Will Win Cup Race.

New York, August 31.—The biggest bet ever made on a sporting event, $250,000 to $150,000, was made yesterday in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel. W. F. Mustin, president of the Pittsburg stock exchange, representing a syndicate of Pittsburg millionaires, bet $250,000 to $150,000, posted by Walter J. Kingsley of London, that Shamrock II will not lift the American's cup.

This bet is not only the biggest bet ever made of a similar character, but it establishes the odds for other betters on the cup races. The chances of the American boat are considered good enough to warrant the offer of odds of 5 to 3 in her favor.

Mr. Kingsley arrived in New York on the Deutschland Thursday, bringing with him a commission from a syndicate of sportsmen to place $150,000 on the chances of Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht. Mr. Kingsley had most noted men in London.

SUDDEN DEATH OF GEN. LUDLOW

Disease Contracted During Spanish-American War Kills the Soldier.

HERO OF SANTIAGO

He Served with Distinction in Two Wars, and Was a Popular Leader.

SORROW IN THE ARMY

New York, August 31.—Brigadier General William Ludlow, U. S. A., died at Convent, N. J., of consumption today, at the home of Mr. Griscom. His illness was first noticed on his arrival in the Philippines in May last. He was sent home in the hope that the American climate would restore him and he at once went to Convent.

General Ludlow was one of the best known officers in the army. He entered the military academy from New York in 1860 and, graduating before the close of the civil war, entered the corps of engineers. He rendered conspicuous services in the South for which he was brevetted lieutenant colonel.

Many important works of coast defense and river and harbor improvements have been under his charge and he was a member of the Nicaragua Canal commission which made a report on that project just before the present commission was appointed. In May, 1898, he was made a brigadier general of volunteers and took an active part in the operations around Santiago. He was promoted to be major general of volunteers in recognition of his services.

Upon the re-arrangement of the volunteer officers after the close of the Spanish war he became a brigadier general of volunteers and retained that position until appointed a brigadier general in the regular army last January. Soon after his appointment he went to the Philippines but after a short service there he was invalided home. His friends have known for some time that his death was but a question of a short time.

WHALEN APPEALS FOR A PARDON

Man Who Has Served Eighteen Years for the Murder of Gerald Spaulding at Portage.

Portage, Wis., August 31.—Chas. S. Whalen, who was convicted of murder in the second degree and sent to Waupun for twenty-five years by the Rock county court June 21, 1893, for the killing of Gerald Spaulding in this city, has filed notice that he will apply to Governor for a commutation of sentence. This was one of the most cold-blooded murders in the history of the state. Whalen killed Spaulding for his shoes and then threw the body into the canal. Whalen was captured in Minnesota after having been shot by the sheriff.

WON $90,000 IN ONE JACK POT

New York, August 31.—The story published here today to the effect that W. T. Mustin, president of the Pittsburg stock exchange and President John Chambers of the Glass Trust, won half a million dollars on poker on the voyage from Europe on the Deutschland, which arrived on Thursday night, Mustin is said to have won ninety thousand dollars in one jack-pot.

Just Between Ourselves

While in Chicago last Saturday we took advantage of the opportunity to see the matinee performance of "Under Two Flags," at the Powers theater and the evening performance of "King Dodo" at the Studebaker. Both are mammoth productions and both were witnessed by immense audiences. "Under Two Flags" was in its first week but it had already met with high favor, there being very few vacant seats. Although "King Dodo" had been running for thirteen weeks and gave the 107th performance at the Studebaker last Saturday evening, the theater was packed and standing room was sold, as it had been at almost every performance for several weeks. It is not surprising to see how many people who are willing to pay for the privilege of standing up during the entire evening. Fond as I am of the Thespian art I think I would draw the line at that.

But "King Dodo" seems to have a great hold on the people of Chicago. I heard of one prominent physician who has been to see it eight times and who says it is just as amusing and just as pleasing to him as it was the first time he saw it. He intends to go and listen to the bright music and the funny jokes every time he can get a night off while "King Dodo" and his merry retinue stay in Chicago.

Much as I enjoyed the breezy nonsense and the mirth-provoking pranks of "King Dodo" there was something else that pleased me more and gave me renewed faith in humanity even though it is packed in large cities. As a rule, people in Chicago are quite too busy to pay any more attention to other people than they are absolutely compelled to. Generally the lower the position they hold, the more self-important they are and the less time they have to answer questions civilly, while it is a rare occurrence indeed for them to offer a service. Consequently it was quite refreshing to find an entire force of employees so uniformly courteous as the one which keeps things running smoothly at the Studebaker. From the ticket seller to the ushers and the boys who carried water between the acts, all manifested a gentlemanly courtesy toward the patrons of the house and all seemed imbued with the idea that they were there to serve the people. I even saw one little fellow who had charge of the entrance to the boxes go considerably out of his way to show a very fat and ordinary looking woman, who had bought standing room and looked out of sorts with all the world, a place where she could see the stage better and get a little rest between times by sitting down. There was an entire absence of that stony-faced dictatorial manner so common in large cities and I think I found the secret of it all in Mr. A. B. Clark, the resident manager of the house, whom we had the pleasure of meeting personally. A thorough gentleman, genial and courteous, the success of his theatrical ventures has never caused him to build a barbed wire fence around himself or to take refuge behind an icy wall of reserve. His manner is frankly cordial, and as he personally supervises the Studebaker, it is easy to see why the employees of the theater are so thoughtful of the comfort of the patrons. Such little courtesies give people a new view of life and an admiration for Chicago where the hurry and bustle tends to knock off the polish of common civilities in short order.

Residents of large cities always find a peculiar pleasure in the gullibility of country people when they come to town and within the past few weeks there was a little occurrence in Chicago which afforded a great deal of amusement for a small circle of Chicagoans who know the story. The joke is on a professional man of Janesville and it is still told in Chicago with a great deal of relish. It seems the Janesville gentleman was down to attend a professional convention which would up with an elaborate banquet in honor of the visitors. The ladies were bidden to the feast and a Chicagoan who was prominent throughout the convention occupied a place of honor and was accompanied by his wife. She was resplendent in handsome evening dress and a wealth of beautiful diamonds, her collection being said to be one of the finest in Chicago. The sparkling gems reflected rays of myriad light from her hair, her ears, her corsage, and her fingers and won many glances of open admiration from the other guests around the banquet board. The Janesville man more than glanced at them—he stared. In fact, he was fascinated by the gleam of the glittering gems and finally he turned to the man at his elbow, who happened to be a resident of Chicago, and said: "What magnificent diamonds that lady wears! Are they real?" Quick as a flash the answer came "You mean Mrs. Blank? Oh, no, they're imitation. You know her husband is in that business. He keeps an immense store at such-a-number, such-a-street and deals in nothing but imitation diamonds. He does an enormous business." It is asserted by those who witnessed the scene that the man's eyes were as big as saucers and he said: "Well, well, I will go down to that place the very first thing in the morning and buy me the biggest diamond in the store. They are a fine imitation from real stones."

The Chicago man kept his face straight, but the joke was whispered quietly around the tables and every one took a good look at the man from the Wisconsin town. In due time the story reached the ears of the lady with the diamonds. At first she was inclined to be displeased that anyone could mistake her costly gems for paste, but the joke finally appealed to her sense of humor and she only regretted the fact that she could not see the Janesville man's face when he visited her husband's store the next morning and saw what kind of a stock he kept instead of the imitation diamonds which he expected to find.

Down here in this little village of Wapella, with its four or five hundred people, they claim to have something which is the only one of its kind in the world. This curiosity is a 12-year old girl who is an expert barber and who handles the lather brush and the razor like a veteran. Her name is Burzie Lighthall and she is the daughter of James B. Lighthall, who keeps a restaurant, ice cream parlor and barber shop all in one room. Appetizing combination, isn't it? The manner in which the young girl drifted into the work is novel. She was accustomed to helping her father in the restaurant and finally she took upon herself the duty of lathering the next customer while her father was busy. One day, about two months ago she lathered a man, according to her custom. Her father was busy and the man was in a great hurry. He asked her if she couldn't go ahead and finish the job and she said that she could. "Go ahead then," said the man, and the child went ahead and did a good job. Her fame spread rapidly and since that time she has shaved from two to seventeen men every day. She shaved seventeen men in one afternoon, some of them great, burly laboring men with stubby beards and with all her experience she has never yet cut any one.

Owing to her diminutive size she has to have the chair pretty low so that she can "get at" the men's faces easily. Her father is quite proud of his assistant and says she is without doubt the only twelve year old girl barber in the world. He feels positive that she is the only one with so clean a record. She shaves back-handed or forward. Little Miss Burzie is a bright, happy child, as smart as a whip and ready to play when she is not on duty at her father's shop, which is the only two-chair shop in the town. She is a perfect little lady and is as yet unspoiled by her business career. L. F. B.

Conceit Taken Out of Him.
A young man in this city who prides himself on being a first-class shot with shot gun, had considerable of the conceit taken out of him a few days ago. He drove out to a farmer's house a short distance from the city and bought fifteen live pigeons. He was particular to state to the farmer that he wanted all old birds and good flyers. After he had secured the pigeons he dove around to the business place of a friend and got him to go down to Athletic park with him and watch him kill the pigeons. His friend asked him what distance he wanted to shoot, twenty-six or twenty-eight yards? The young man was a sport and said he would take the limit, thirty yards. The shooting began and one by one the fifteen birds were released from the trap. Two shots were allowed at each bird and the fence was the boundary line. The young man finally succeeded in hitting one of the birds hard enough to break its leg. It flew against the fence and with the aid of his friend he succeeded in running it down. The farmer he bought the pigeons of says he will sell him the next lot at reduced rates as all of the others came back home.

Lost a Three-Carat Diamond.
Mr. John Ray, the gentleman who lost the three-carat diamond Thursday some place in this city, or in the cars between this city and Belvidere, was in the city today to see if he could find any clue to the diamond. He was in R. M. Bostwick's clothing store and purchased some goods about 2 o'clock and had the diamond at that time. The person that waited on him remembered noticing it. He then went up to the park and stayed there for some time, then came down town and stopped into Hall, Sayles & Fife's and bought some things for his wife. They are quite positive that he had the diamond on when in their place of business. He took the 4:10 train for Belvidere and did not know his diamond was gone until his wife asked him where his stud was. He feels certain that it was lost and not stolen as he was not near any one to give them a chance to get it.

The Small of the Back

That is where some people feel weak all the time.

They are likely to be despondent and it is not unusual to find them borrowing trouble as if they hadn't enough already.

The fact is their kidneys are weak, either naturally or because of sickness, exposure, worry or other influences.

"I am thankful to say," writes J. L. Campbell, of Sycamore, Ill., "that Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me. For many years I was troubled with backache. At times I was so bad I had to be helped from the bed or chair. I am now well and strong and free from pain. What this great medicine did for him it has done for others."

The Sign of Health

Dizziness and headaches cannot be cured in any other manner than by getting at the root of the trouble and curing the cause.

The cause is almost invariably a disordered digestive system, or else a bad stomach and clogged bowels are responsible. Laxakola, the great Tonic Laxative, is an unfailing cure.

It works gently and painlessly and at the same time acts as a tonic to the bowels, stomach, liver and kidneys and builds up the system instead of weakening and irritating it as other laxatives do.

Its remarkable properties reach every organ—the liver, kidneys and stomach, nerve, heart and brain—and removes the cause of your debilitated condition. This is the only way to secure an absolute and permanent cure. Laxakola is the only medicine for babies, is purely vegetable and its action is gentle, speedy and effective. For coated tongue, simple fevers, colds, chills and languid feeling it is the ideal medicine.

It tastes good. Children like it and ask for it.

LAXAKOLA FOR WOMEN.

It is a gentle and safe remedy to use during all conditions of health of the gentler sex whenever their peculiar and delicate constitutions require a mild and efficient laxative and tonic, and is invaluable in assisting to relieve obstructions which otherwise would lead to more or less severe pain or illness. It improves the complexion, brightens the eyes, sharpens the appetite, quickens the circulation, removes muddy and blotched condition of the skin and cures sick headache to certainty by removing the cause. To women suffering from chronic constipation, headaches, biliousness, dizziness, sallowness of the skin and dyspepsia, Laxakola will invariably bring relief. At druggists, etc., or send for free sample to THE LAXAKOLA CO., 123 Nassau Street, N. Y., or 326 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

Mains will be laid through Main street, beginning at the opera house and extending to the corner south of H. N. Heggard's.

This it is estimated will cost about $2,300. The board expect to levy a special tax of about five mills to pay for this.

This will give the village a good beginning and will no doubt be extended from time to time.

FAITHFULNESS.

The intelligent dog was watching a horse that was tied to a bush the other day, while his master was busy at work not far away. A stranger in passing was reminded of the presence of the dog by a low growl. He was interested in watching the animal and finally said to his owner: "What kind of a dog is that?"

The man replied that he was just an ordinary watch dog, but he said "It wouldn't be safe for any one to meddle with that horse for he is the most faithful dog you ever saw. He would stay here all day without his dinner and all night if necessary, to watch anything that I put in his care."

That is faithfulness on the part of a dumb animal that is worthy of emulation by a great many men and women.

Just how the well bred family comes to possess this trait of character that people admire so much, no one has ever attempted to explain. But he has it well developed from the time he takes on the dignity of age.

You expect a good deal of this kind of a dog, and he seldom disappoints you. It is one of the cases where dumb instinct puts to blush human intelligence.

The world is lacking in people that are absolutely faithful. It is a quality that is needed in the home, in the church, in society and in every department of business.

The man who is faithful to his home does more than simply to supply it with the necessities of life. He devotes to it his love, and practices all the little courtesies that mean so much in the home life.

His wife is more than simply the cook and the mother of his children. She is his companion and partner in the broadest and fullest sense of the term.

She shares his confidence and helps him carry the burdens, and if the home life approaches the ideal, he finds her society more attractive than the club or lodge.

He appreciates the fact that men so often overlook, that the home is the woman's world, and as such is entitled to his faithful and considerate effort, not spasmodically, but constantly.

There are too many husbands who never get acquainted with their wives. They see them at meal time, and occasionally in the evening, but they drift apart as the years go by until they have but little in common, and the home that was intended for the most sacred place on earth becomes imply a convenience.

When the wife goes out of this kind of a home, several years before the Lord intended she should, the husband wakes up to the fact that he has lost more than a housekeeper, and he squanders money and sentiment over her grave that should have been spent in keeping her out of it.

Faithfulness in little things adds to the years of the wife and mother, and contributes happiness to the household.

The wife who is faithful to the husband and home is more than simply the housekeeper and mother. She is the presiding genius, recognizing all that the term implies.

She discovers very soon that the neat costume and winning smile are just as attractive, and a good deal more important in the home, than they were back in the years of her girlhood, when she swung on the gate in the moonlight.

She could entertain John every Sunday evening till midnight, but when it comes to having him on her hands every evening that's another proposition.

And so, without meaning to be careless, she becomes negligent of personal appearance, and the smile instead of being spontaneous, becomes mechanical, or is displaced by a frown.

She tires of close companionship, and wants to go into society, but the husband prefers the home. Soon the afternoon club and six o'clock tea become more attractive than the home, and the man goes out to find congenial associations and companionship that the home fails to supply.

It is perfectly natural for women to want society and they ought to have it, but modern methods are not conducive to the welfare and happiness of the home. When a lot of married women get together to gossip and entertain themselves, or a lot of married men find the club room more attractive than the home, the conditions are abnormal. Better for both to return to old fashioned methods. Be on good terms with everybody, but have few intimate friends.

There is something radically wrong with a home, when the love that kindled its altar fires has gone out, and the cheap subterfuge called society is substituted in its place.

The weakness of the church today is lack of faithfulness. Men and women who are loyal under all circumstances and in all conditions. Not the man who prays the longest or pays the most, or the woman who talks the fastest or whose enthusiasm all runs to foreign missions, but the men and women who watch as well as pray, and whose watchfulness is always for the welfare of the church.

Men and women who work as well as talk. Praying, if it amounts to anything, does not require much of an effort, and talk is wonderfully cheap, but work means sweat, and if intelligently directed, means thought and consecrated service.

There is a promise of a crown of life to the faithful, that should serve as a constant inspiration.

Faithful service, whether in the home, the church, or the busy workshop of life, is the only service that amounts to anything, or that wins the prizes.

The greatest kingdom that any man or woman ever conquers is the kingdom of self. The heroes in this conflict are the faithful servants in every department of life's activities.

FRANCE AND THE PORTE.

The questions at issue between Turkey and France are, of course, financial. No European country has any other question with the "sick man."

Two of the three claims are for advances made by Frenchmen in the construction of railroads, the interest claim amounting to about $9,000,000; the third claim, and the most important, is the franchise of a dock and quay company. After constructing immense works at great expense and being in a position to enjoy a lucrative remuneration for several years, the sultan suddenly decides to buy back the concession with the view of enjoying the privileges. Of course the French claims will have to be paid sooner or later, and probably will not be serious enough to cause war.

The company is powerless to enforce its claims without the assistance of the government, and a warship or two may cause the porte to suddenly decide to buy a French man-o-war or two, and pay a few extra millions.

Press reform in Russia is assuming tangible form. New laws have been passed, which allow more liberty and milder punishments. A paper with warnings hanging over its head not only lost its spirit and courage, but also its subscribers, who feared to be considered sympathizers.

Foreign newspapers prophecy only disaster to American industry because of the great steel strike. No matter what the result may be the damage has already been done and the loss is irreparable.

ROLLIN LEWIS SWIMS THE LAKE

Crosses Delavan Lake, a Distance of One Mile—Son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Lewis of This City.

Rollin Lewis, a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Lewis of this city, recently accomplished the difficult feat of swimming across Delavan lake, a distance of one mile. The young man was accompanied by friends, in a row boat to see that he did not become exhausted and drown before he completed the trip. He swam the distance easily and did not show any signs of exhaustion when he landed on the opposite shore from the starting point.

Mr. Lewis is quite an athlete and was a leader in all athletic sports while in the Janesville High school. He is a member of the Mississippi Golf club and bids fair to become one of the best players in the club.

Next Tuesday is children's day at the Evansville fair. Special attractions are offered for this day that will amuse the little ones.

The train service is excellent from Janesville to Evansville which will result in a large delegation going from here to the fair to be held Sept. 3, 4 and 5.

On September 7-11, inclusive, the C. & N. W. R'y will sell tickets to Cleveland, O., at $10.50 for round trip unit September 15 with privilege of extension to October 8. For full particulars see ticket agent C. & N. W. Passenger station.

OVER 300 HUNTING LICENSES ISSUED

Open Season for Shooting All Sorts of Game Begins Tomorrow—Local Sports Plan Trips.

Over three hundred hunting licenses have been issued by County Clerk Starr up to this afternoon.

The open season for hunting all kinds of game birds begins tomorrow, September 1st. Many local sportsmen are planning hunting trips that will take them to different points throughout the state where game abounds. Others left last night and this morning for Iowa, Minnesota and the Dakotas where fine chicken and duck shooting is reported. Among the local shooters those who have dogs that are broken will go after prairie chickens, and other, not so fortunate, as to own a bird dog, will go to Koshkonong and try and kill a mess of ducks. It is safe to say that the hunters will not average more than a bird apiece as reports from the surrounding country and from Lake Koshkonong do not indicate that there was a large number of birds raised around here this year.

The opening day of the shooting season is always a lively one for the game. It is chased and pursued in all directions, after that the pursuit lets up some and it is only once in a while that the hunters go after them. The only real sport to be had around this country now-a-days is duck shooting and that is not as good as it will be later when the cold weather drives the northern ducks south. The best duck shooting at Lake Koshkonong begins about October 15th and lasts for about a month. At that time the canvas-back and other northern ducks come south in large numbers and some good bags can be made.

IS WIPING OUT ARMENIANS

Atrocities Committed by Kurds Part of Sultan's Crafty Plan.

London, August 30.—The Daily Mail publishes today an article written by All Nouri Bey, former Turkish consul at Rotterdam, declaring that the massacre of Armenians by Kurds, which has just recommenced, is part of a regular system of extermination. He says: "The number of Armenians killed will depend upon the outcry raised in Europe and the pressure brought to bear upon the sultan. The same horrible process will be repeated year after year until they all are killed."

COLONEL AND MRS. W. B. BRITTON WILL CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Invitations Issued to Attend the Half Century Jubilee at Myers' Hotel on September 11.

Invitations have been issued by Col. and Mrs. W. B. Britton to their numerous friends asking them to attend the celebration of their golden wedding.

Col. and Mrs. Britton were married at New Brunswick, N. J., September 11, 1875, and after fifty years of happy married life have asked their friends to gather with them at the Hotel Myers at eight o'clock on the evening of September 11 and help them celebrate the event.

Few people in this city are better known or more highly respected than

Col. and Mrs. Britton. During their long residence in this city they have seen it grow from a small place into a city of importance. Col. Britton has always been one of the foremost business men of the city and it is only within the last few years that he has retired from active business life and is taking a well-earned rest in his old age.

Their friends who gather with him at that time will be pleased to extend their congratulations for the pleasure it gives them to be able to take part in so notable an event.

CHILDREN'S CHOIR AT GRAND CONCERT

Another Great Attraction Has Been Secured for the Event at Myers' Grand September 6.

Among the other notable attractions offered the public by the Mid-Winter Fair committee for the grand concert at the Myers Grand on Friday evening, September 6, is the Congregational church children's choir, under the leadership of Mrs. W. S. Jeffris.

This choir has the reputation of being the best aggregation of boy and girl singers ever heard in this state. Under the careful training and tuition of Mrs. Jeffris the choir has obtained a wonderful harmony and it will be a treat to listen to them alone worth the price of admission.

The committee has not yet exhausted its resources. They state they still have other attractions in a musical and literary way in view. These will be announced from time to time early next week. It is the intention to make the concert, without exception, the most notable and best ever presented in this city.

The demand for seats is good and yesterday at the opening sale quite a number of leading business men purchased large blocks of them. Those who desire to get in on the choice seats want to get to the Peoples' Drug store very soon, as it is sure there will be nothing but standing room left by Tuesday.

MONROE PARTY IN SEARCH OF LAND

Major J. A. Stearns and Party from Monroe Return from Trip in Dakota and Minnesota.

Maj. A. J. Stearns of Monroe, and a party passed through the city this morning on their way home from a trip through Iowa, Minnesota and Dakota where they had been in search of land. The party traveled in a St. Paul sleeping car and had everything one could ask for. They have been out eleven days and during that time purchased about one thousand acres of land. They had a state room filled with samples of corn, oats, wheat and other grains grown in the country they investigated and also had samples of fodder, red clover and other grasses. The samples of corn were excellent and far ahead of anything shown around here this season.

The party was under the supervision of Major Stearns and was composed of Born, Juda, Frank Thorpe, Clarion, Melcher Smith, New Glarus, James Stevens, Juda, W. Wagner, Orangeville, Charles Shriner, George Thorpe and J. B. Galusha, J. H. Duerst, B. Wells, Captain Kneudert, H. Bridge, J. A. Stearns and E. G. Haviland of Monroe.

A number of the members of the party went along just for a pleasure trip and not with the idea of buying land.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

The Ferris Comedians distinguished themselves at the Myers Grand last night by a masterly performance of "The Commodore." The members of the cast appeared to better advantage in it than in anything they have presented heretofore. This afternoon a matinee is in progress with "The Plunger" for the bill. This evening they will present the "Two Orphans." The work of the company during the past week has been first-class. They have presented clean, wholesome plays in an acceptable manner. While their acting was a little crude and raw sometimes, that will wear away as the practice continues. They deserve support wherever they go for their painstaking and artistic work.

While the comedy "Two Merry Tramps," as presented by Wood & Ward's company, has been pronounced a bright satire by the press throughout the country during the past two years, the play in itself is of minor importance, the specialties and musical numbers intruding almost continuously during the action of the comedy being the features that have placed this organization at the head of its class.

Mr. Hayes is in his Janesville office Saturdays and Mondays.

Choir Children Attention The children of the Congregational church choir are requested to meet at the church on Monday afternoon at two o'clock to arrange for a rehearsal for the Mid-Winter Fair Committee Concert at the Myers Grand on Friday, September 6. MRS. W. S. JEFFRIS.

ATTEMPT TO STEAL CORNER STONE BOX

Some Miscreants Dug a Hole in the Cement, But Failed to Get Into the Box.

Some one intent on doing mischief or having the idea that something valuable had been deposited in the tin box of the soldiers' memorial monument undertook to get into the box some time last night.

It was discovered this morning that quite a hole had been dug in the cement that holds the box in the cavity by the people having designs on it. They had not succeeded in getting through the cement or doing any damage to the box.

A large spike and a rock were the implements used in the work and were found lying near the place where the hole had been dug. The hole was cemented up again today and a large stone cemented over the cavity to prevent any further acts of vandalism. The contents of the box would have been of no particular value to anyone had they succeeded in opening it, as they are mostly papers and records which would be of no use to anyone at the present time but which may be of great value at some time in the future.

The ground surrounding the base of the monument has been graded up and rounded off and improves the appearance of that part of the park very much.

CHARLES E. DUNN MADE A LAWYER

Janesville Boy Passed the Examination at Madison—37 Entered and 32 Failed.

Madison, Wis., August 31.—Only five of the thirty-seven young men who took the state board examination for admission to the bar here this week passed. They are: M. S. Sheridan, Milwaukee; John B. Sanborn, Madison; W. E. Shimmie, Lancaster; Charles E. Dunn, Janesville, and Eugene C. Joannes, Green Bay. The next examination will be held in Milwaukee the last Tuesday in December.

PATENT GUIDE BOARDS

Have Been Placed on All the Main Roads Throughout Rock County.

Fourteen public roads lead into Janesville. They are heavily traveled and are becoming more so each year. With improvements of grading and drainage these roads are becoming much like the turn-pikes of the eastern states, sound and dry in all kinds of weather, and fit for travel winter and summer in any kind of vehicle.

On these roads the Standard Mile and Guide Board Co. of Janesville proposes to place a number of its guide boards. These boards are attractive affairs, but the unsightly things that were formerly strung along the highways and left to rot and fall down. They are strongly made, set upon cedar posts, well-anchored in the ground. They stand ten feet high and are six by eight feet in size. The fronts of the boards are covered with steel plates on which the signs are painted. These steel plates are removable so that firms having signs on them can make changes as often as desired. Only one merchant in one line of business can have space on one board. This insures exclusive advertising for the merchant or firm on all the mile and guide boards put up by the Standard company. This advantage will of course be readily seen by business men.

Three hundred boards will be placed in Rock county by the Standard company. The novelty and beauty of these boards make it impossible that they can go unnoticed. For a distance of fifteen miles from Janesville these elegant guide boards will be erected. At prominent corners the boards will contain the name of the county and township and other valuable information, such as the distance to neighboring towns as well as distance from Janesville. The following state law protects the boards from injury:

"If any person maliciously take down, injure or remove * * * or deface any mile stone, post or guide board erected on any public way or remove, deface or injure any sign board * * * he shall be fined not exceeding $100 or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding one year or both, at the discretion of the court."

COMPLETE DIFFICULT CONTRACT

Owen Goss House Moving Co. of Milwaukee Fulfill All Promises.

What has proved to be the most difficult house moving contract ever carried out in this section of the county was finished this week by the Owen Goss House Moving Company of Milwaukee. The houses moved were taken from the new city library site at the corner of Main and South First streets. The two houses in question were two of the largest frame dwellings in the city and were erected at great cost by the late James Van Etta. The dwelling purchased by J. M. Hostwick & Sons was moved by the Goss company in two sections. With not the slightest amount of damage the two parts were moved up Court street and onto St. Lawrence Place, a distance of half a mile. The house has been placed together as perfect as before. The Van Etta home purchased by Dr. E. H. Dudley was next taken in charge. Weighing 240 tons the workmen soon had this structure loaded on timbers and rollers ready to move down Park street onto Main.

With as much ease as if they were moving a one story affair the Goss company handled this monster. A brick chimney five feet in width and depth and thirty feet high was moved without the least disturbance. This chimney, it is said, cost the builder about a thousand dollars. Such difficult house moving contracts are not common in this section and the work each day has attracted large crowds of sight seers. The Goss company have received words of praise on all sides for the able manner in which they have fulfilled the two contracts. The Owen Goss House Moving company, with offices at 189 Twelfth Street, Milwaukee, was organized forty years ago. The firm is now composed of T. R. Goss and P. J. Goss.

Just About Your Feet

In a few more days all our talk will be given to telling of our new fall shoes, most of which are now on the way from the factories. Meanwhile looking through our stock we find a great many "good things" for the wise shopper—odds and ends—but all of the present season's designing. Some are ladies and some are gents. All of these we have thrown into assorted bargain lots, to close out, disregarding entirely their original cost.
